

Jason Cutmore, pianist

Concert Reviews

"Cutmore possesses a charismatic generosity of communication in his music... masterly technique and sensitive interpretation..."

-Fauzia Marikar, The Telegraph,
Calcutta, India, December 2004

"Cutmore played Schubert's Sonata in B-flat... without any pretension. He managed to create depth without dragging the music down... In his deep emotional penetration, he does not lose sight of structure."

-S. Michalzik, Offenbach-Post
Frankfurt, Germany, June 2006

"After the intermission came the piece de resistance of the evening, Ferenc Liszt's Sposalizio, Sonetto 123 del Petrarca (and Après une Lecture du Dante). Jason managed to recreate much of the magical extravaganza evoked by the great showman Hungarian composer-pianist..."

-G. George, The Statesman,
