

Jason Cutmore, pianist

Extended Biography

(Updated May 2011)

Jason Cutmore has performed piano recitals and collaborative concerts throughout North America, Europe and India, winning praise for his "brilliant technical finesse" and "deep emotional penetration" (Offenbach-Post, Germany), and for the "charismatic generosity of communication in his music." (The Telegraph, India).

In 2008, Mr. Cutmore's debut commercial CD, an album of piano music by Spanish composer Manuel de Falla on Centaur Records, was released to critical acclaim. Gramophone magazine praised his "warm, generous sonority and natural feel for the idiom" and raved that "this pianist's gorgeously variegated legato makes a sexy and inviting recital." Mr. Cutmore's interpretations of the Spanish piano repertoire have gained notice in concert as well. The Times Argus in Vermont has written that "Cutmore performed this most evocative music with flair. His colorful playing proved vibrant and exciting."

Mr. Cutmore made his Chicago recital debut in the Dame Myra Hess Memorial Concerts in 2005 with an all-Liszt programme that was broadcast live on WFMT radio, and shown on Chicago Cable TV 25. Since then he has returned twice to the Hess series, and has performed in Canada's Colours of Music Festival, the Elora Festival, Calgary's "Celebrity Series" and for the Edmonton Recital Society, as well as at venues in New York City, Cleveland, Cincinnati and elsewhere in North America. His concert performances, and an ardent interest in foreign travel, have frequently taken him abroad to Germany, Hungary, Lithuania, and India. These performances have included appearances at the National Centre for the Performing Arts (Mumbai), the Alliance Francaise (Bangalore), and the India International Centre (New Delhi), as well as at the Franz Liszt Museum in Budapest, and Bartok Hall in Szombathely, Hungary.

Mr. Cutmore's upcoming concert engagements in the 2011-12 season include west coast debuts in L.A. and San Francisco, concerts in Toronto and Kitchener-Waterloo, as well as numerous performances elsewhere in North America.

An avid interest in chamber music has led to many collaborations, both traditional and unusual, including past partnerships formed with Lithuanian pianist Guoda Gedvilaite, and with concert organist Daniel Sullivan. One of Mr. Cutmore's current projects is a collaboration with narrator (and former CBC radio personality) Rick Phillips, in works for solo piano and narrator by great composers such as Debussy, Roussel, Poulenc, Prokofiev, Saint-Saens and others, in live concert performances for children.

Jason Cutmore holds degrees from the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music, and the SUNY Purchase College Conservatory of Music in New York. His major teachers have included Stephanie Brown, Robert Shannon, and Michael Massey. Originally from Edmonton, Canada, Mr. Cutmore now resides in a suburb of New York City.
